

Horasis Asia Meeting

Virtual Event, 26 November 2021 (7.30-20.00 Singapore time)

Co-host:

- City of Kitakyushu

Co-chairs:

- Bo Inge Andersson, Chief Executive Officer, Uzauto Motors, Uzbekistan
- Erik Berglof, Chief Economist, Asia Infrastructure Investment Bank, China
- Ashishkumar Chauhan, Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer, BSE, India
- Vijay Eswaran, Chairman, QI Ltd, Hong Kong
- Kris Gopalakrishnan, Chairman, Axilor Ventures, India
- Tatsuo Hatta, President, Asian Growth Research Institute, Japan
- Roger King, Founder and Chairman, ODS Holdings Inc., Hong Kong
- Oki Matsumoto, Chairman, Monex Group, Japan
- Girish Ramachandran, President Asia Pacific, TCS, Singapore
- Murat Seitnepesov, Chairman, Caspian Week, Switzerland
- Vinod Sekhar, Chairman and Group Chief Executive Officer, Petra Group, Malaysia

Co-organizers:

- Amazon Web Services
- Caspian Week
- Cosmic Citizens
- All India Management Association (AIMA)
- Pacific Basin Economic Council (PBEC)
- Petra Group
- Philip Morris International
- Publicize
- Run the World
- TCS

Schedule for November 26

Morning sessions	Afternoon sessions
07.30-08.15 Horasis Community Building	14.15-15.00 Parallel Sessions
08.15-08.58 Digital Breakfast Sessions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Asian crypto-currency - Listening to the marginalized - Post-COVID economic friction - Asian FinTech - Teaching use of blockchain - Beware of Inflation - Asian geopolitics - Social effects of Asian AI - Asian unicorns 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - SDG Goal #8 demands decent work - Asian private investment risks - Gender equality - RCEP post-Covid - Cashless societies - Global internet integration - Thriving on diversity - Supporting stability, nurturing disruptors - M&A within Asian trade accords - Enhancing Connectivity in Central Asia - Educating the poor
08.58-09.00 Welcome and Overview Horasis welcomes participants	15.00-15.45 Parallel Sessions
09.00-09.45 Plenary Asia's regeneration of globalization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Managing cyber-transformations - Philanthropy makes a difference - Eco-management of mega-structures - Business leaders' theories - Developing social innovation - Rushing for clean energy - Developing Asian entrepreneurship - Reviewing B&R concept - Foreign Investments - The Arts: Movies and Cinema
09.45-10.30 Parallel Sessions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Supporting the underprivileged - Global aspirations of COP26 - Predicting cyber attacks - Balance COVID eradication and UN goals - 5th industrial revolution in Asia - Diversity and impact investing - Asian innovation clusters - Life-work balance 	15.45-16.30 Parallel Sessions
10.30-11.15 Parallel Sessions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Asian post Gen-Z life style - Sustainable globalization post-COVID - Digitization enabling crypto-assets - Work and play after COVID - Sustainable finance mitigating climate change - Describing Asian recovery - Ending Female Objectification - The Arts: Contemporary Asian Art Reimagined 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Asian manufacturing efficiency - Avoiding the next pandemic - Compensating for lost tourism - Japan's Asian free trade - Sustainable economic reform - Energy supply and demand risks - Global minimum tax rate in Asia - Asians as futurists -The Arts: Culture and Decolonization in Asia
11.15-12.00 Parallel Sessions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Diversification of higher education - Business sentiment post-COVID - Rebuilding trust in institutions - Well-being across Asia - Absorbing Asian graduates - Pioneering Change - Managing Misinformation - The Arts: Dreaming of a Shared Humanity 	16.30-17.15 Plenary India's universal goals Indonesia's Net Zero emission ambition
12.00-12.45 Plenary Shaping the New Asia Horasis Community Building	17.15-18.00 Closing Plenary Enhancing Asia sustainability Addressing the 3-S Challenge
12.45-13.30 Plenary Asian economic development City of Kitakyushu	18.00-18.05 Closing Remarks Asian regeneration beyond COVID
13.30-14.15 Plenary Sustainable Asian growth China's future growth and reforms	18.05-18.15 Plenary Announcing 2022 Horasis Asia Meeting
	18.15-19.00 Closing Parallel Sessions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Leveraging Asian technology - Accepting AI - Story-telling for the future - China's maturing GDP trend - COVID-proofing Asian businesses - Changing overwork culture - Reducing logistics panic - Brand sustainability - Asian strategies in the pandemized age - Asia's future digital economy - Asian solutions for an impact-led recovery - Disintermediating Supply Chains in Asia - The Greatest Generational Wealth Transfer - The Arts: Critical role of the arts post-COVID 19.00-20.00 Virtual Receptions Horasis Community Building Impact Entrepreneurship

November 26, 2021 (Singapore Time)

07.30-08.15 Horasis Community Building

Horasis is providing a matchmaking tool to connect with other delegates - each participant will be randomly matched with another to speak for 5 minutes by video, then become paired with another, and so on. It is hoped that these brainstorming links will unite delegates and initiate creativity to inspire the rest of the meeting time.

08.15-08.58 Digital Breakfast Sessions

An Asian Crypto-currency Might Erode Dollar Dependency

China may be the first Asian nation to offer a crypto-currency and other Asian nations are actively researching. Might these state-backed instruments become a global monetary standard easing out reliance on the US dollar? How will that be managed? How would crypto-coin exchanges be positioned to aid trade? How would they be insured? What, ultimately, is their philosophy?

- Evan Auyang, Group President, Animoca Brands, Hong Kong SAR
- Aditya Berlia, Founder, Svrn-Apeejay Journalism Foundation, India
- Sebright Chen, Chairman, Summer Atlantic Capital, USA
- Tom Ludescher, Chief Executive Officer Asia & EMEA, Entsia International, Singapore
- Katsuyuki Tochimoto, Founder, M-Theory Inc., Japan

Chaired by

- Stephen Meade, Chief Executive Officer and Founder, MonetaPro, USA

Listening to the Marginalized

The poor and weak in society have rarely had permission to verbalize and explain their situation. Some Asians are taking to the Internet to raise their voices but are subject to censure. How can we enable this process without it becoming a vindictive rout? How to sensitively discuss and amend historic wrongs?

- Nagaraja Kumar Deevi, Managing Partner, Deevi, USA
- Yoshitaka Hirano, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, 2nDREAM Corporation, Japan
- Siddharth Poddar, Founder and Managing Editor, StoneBench, Singapore
- Toby Thompkins, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Safioo, USA

Chaired by

- Kanesan Velupillai, Chief Strategic Communications Officer, Cahya Mata Sarawak, Malaysia

Addressing Global Economic Friction Post-COVID

Post-COVID we find money supply is stable but physical global supply chains beginning in Asia have been broken, national debts vastly increased. How to rebuild economies – by mandating re-shoring and closing out-sourcing? Is there a middle way to rebuild the global economies that avoids the present frictions?

- David Drake, Founder and Chairman, LDJ Capital, USA
- Marios P. Efthymiopoulos, Chief Executive Officer, Strategy International, Cyprus
- Elias Li, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Fyllan, USA
- David Huang, Senior Economic Consultant, 2022 Winter Olympics, China
- John J. Ying, Managing Director, Peak Capital, Hong Kong

Chaired by

- Nicholas Johnson, Chief Executive Officer, Economists Without Borders, Australia

The Asian FinTech Revolution

Typically, many Asian FinTech solutions are phone apps that link to established market giants so they quickly accrue large followings across the huge national populations. In contrast, the local dominant firms have taken years to reach their positions and have carefully diffused coherent business processes. What can we discern as The Asian FinTech Revolution? Is it exportable across the globe?

- Jouko Ahvenainen, Founder and Executive Chairman, Grow VC Group, USA
- Kimball Andrews, Founder, Nova Finance Group, Australia
- Kam Hosn, Chief Executive Officer, Everest, USA
- Motoya Kitamura, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Northvillage Investment, Japan
- Zhang Jiwu, Co-founder and Chairman, SunHealth Digital Group, China

Chaired by

- Rishi Mehra, Chief Executive Officer, Wishfin, India

Teaching and Using Blockchain in South East Asia

Many SE Asian nations have initiated blockchain education programmes as they have a high Internet penetration rate, over 70% of its population unbanked, and large remittances from migrant workers needing cashflow security, as does e-commerce and global supply chains. Is there any implementation hesitation across the region? Do geopolitics within the regional trade accords cause management issues? How will the regional blockchains be integrated?

- Stan Fung, Managing Director, FarSight Ventures, China
- Joses Lo-Chang Hsiung, Founder and Chief Executive Officer Winnoz Technology, Taiwan
- Dimosthenis Manginas, President, TrustInCoins, Luxembourg

Chaired by

- Sindhu Bhaskar, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, EST Global Inc., USA

In a Period of High Inflation - Be Aware of One's Wishes

There are strong hints of inflation growing across Asia as many people consider COVID to be cured – they spend accrued savings so pent-up demand outstrips supply. How will Asian governments control inflationary trends if new COVID mutations are found? Do they have novel fiscal ideas that could be applied across Asia and then world-wide?

- Stacy Kenworthy, Chief Executive Officer, Asylum Investment Group, USA
- John Liu, Chief Executive Officer, HAN Capital, China
- Tam Tran, Head of Clients & Markets, KPMG in Vietnam & Cambodia, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Kenji Yokoyama, Vice-President, Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University, Japan

Asian Geopolitical Stances and Other Issues

Broad political questions face emergent India and economically strong China: prominent is global pollution and the need to meet UN/SDG goals. How might these issues be ranked, discussed and solved by the whole Asian community? What are the best discussion fora? Who might take the lead as time is short – to agree, initiate and proceed to far-reaching solutions?

- Samrendra Mohan Kumar, Co-founder and Managing Director, MitKat Advisory Services, India
- Tate Nurkin, Founder, OTH Intelligence Group LLC., USA
- Harukata Takenaka, Professor, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies, Japan
- John West, Executive Director, Asian Century Institute, Australia

Chaired by

- Francis Schortgen, Professor, University of Mount Union, USA

Balancing Technical and Social Effects of Asian AI Potential

AI has powerful solutions for constrained problems – it can automate about half of the work across Asia that creates nearly one trillion dollars in wages. What is the social cost of this disturbance if instantly enacted? How to apply AI to ameliorate worker furlough or worklessness? What is the likely timeframe for this disruption – to commence and to be solved? Which countries will be most affected?

- Svetlana Kamyshanskaya, Startup Advisor, Primum Law Group, USA
- William R. Palaia, Founder, Tgther, USA
- Hidetoshi Uchiyama, Chief Executive Officer, Unerry, Japan

Chaired by

- Navroop Sahdev, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, The Digital Economist, USA

Asian Unicorns: Putting Their Money to Work

To become a new unicorn business staff have had to work hard and long. In contrast, many investors are pressing traditional firms to demand they work to create positive social and environmental outcomes: are these contrarian business goals – long hours, and sustainability? Will new unicorns turn upon themselves if they attract impact investors?

- Stephen Edkins, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Rice Exchange, Singapore
- Joe Hyrkin, Chief Executive Officer, Issuu, USA
- Angela Huang, Founder and President, Tempo Bioscience, USA
- Prachee Kale, Director, The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC), USA
- Minesh Pore, Co-Founder & CEO, The BuyHive, Hong Kong SAR

Chaired by

- Gurvinder Ahluwalia, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Digital Twin Labs, USA

08.58-09.00 Introduction: Welcome and Overview

Horasis welcomes participants to the 2021 Horasis Asia Meeting. Asian nations were developing rapidly, but now, COVID and its mutations have laid all equally low, and all wait for effective vaccination programs. Nevertheless, citizens pull well together, many commercial sectors are booming, with infrastructure rebuilding progressing as nations develop new political models. How are leaders in business, politics and society implementing transformative change? Where are their strengths?

Introduced by

- Frank-Jürgen Richter, Chairman, Horasis, Switzerland

09.00-09.45 Opening Plenary Panel

Asian Regeneration of Globalization

Asian countries are initiating infrastructure innovations to support their comprehensive free trade agreements which will initiate intense reglobalization. How will Asian nations pull together to fully support their weaker neighbors' endeavor? Where and what aid might be needed? How might COVID mutations world-wide upset the Asian nations' regeneration?

- Joseph Chan, Under Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury, Hong Kong SAR
 - Taro Kono, Member of Parliament, Japan
 - Preeti Sinha, Executive Secretary, United Nations Capital Development Fund, United Nations
- Chaired by*
- Ravi Velloor, Associate Editor, The Straits Times, Singapore

09.45-10.30 Parallel Sessions

Supporting the Underprivileged Promotes Wellbeing and Wealth

The COVID pandemic plunged millions of Asians into a new poverty trap; and until COVID is well-managed they seem to have no hope of escape. How can governments and businesses support the poor with food, education and jobs to give them hope? What are the best roadmaps, or is each nation so radically different that no generalizations apply? Is a central body needed to promote Asian post-COVID progression?

- Sushma Paul Berlia, President, Apeejay Styra & Svrn Group, India
 - Claire Chen, Managing Partner, SZLT-iSource Consulting Group, Taiwan
 - Edgar Bullecer, Chief Executive Officer, Paglas Group, The Philippines
 - Alberto Furger, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Amara Holding, Indonesia
- Chaired by*
- Adrian Mutton, Founder & Chief Executive Officer, Sannam S4, USA

The Global Aspirations of COP26

Preceding the COP26 in Glasgow the US and China agreed to strongly reduce their pollution levels, but their actual mechanisms are not yet agreed. Will this dissuade the developing Asian nations who attend COP26? What are the politics involved? What are the odds of a breakthrough like Kyoto or Paris?

- Kerry Adler, Chief Executive Officer, SkyPower Global, UAE
 - Pina Hirano, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Asteria, Japan
 - Kunihiko Shimada, Chief Executive Officer, K S International Strategies, Japan
 - William Wescott, Chairman, BrainOxygen, USA
- Chaired by*
- William Bohnett, Chairman, Smithsonian Environmental Research Center, USA

Analyzing and Predicting Cyber-attacks

Cyber-attacks are rare, but often meaningful, and all governments and firms are at risk of anonymous digital disruption. Especially at risk are the supply chains of Asia. How to explain the relevance of these events to politicians, strategists and users? Will openly discussing solutions make the villains more devious? Should ordinary IT users worry?

- David Armitage, Chief Executive Officer, Velocity Solutions Group, Hong Kong SAR
- Junaid Islam, Partner, OODA, USA
- David Smith, Chief Executive Officer, Zanstrat, USA

Chaired by

- Valmiki Mukherjee, Chairman and Founder, Cyber Future Foundation, USA

COVID Eradication and Meeting UN Goals: a Vital Balance

Everyone faces the risk of catching COVID so all nations are spending heavily on its eradication. Equally costly in the short-term are the UN goals of reducing climate change and in meeting the SDGs. How will governments meet the large fiscal burden? The poor developing economies of Asia might have to choose – but which option has the greater imperative for the common good? How can richer nations help?

- Kate Batz, Managing Partner, Longevity Capital, USA
- Hind Abou Nasr, Founder, Seeds, UAE
- George Wang, President and Chief Executive Officer, E-BI International, USA

Chaired by

- Theodore J. Waz, Member of the Board, WEDC-Smart Cities, USA

The 5th Industrial Revolution Across Developing Asia

Pre-COVID, many academics and business leaders were predicting the 5th Industrial Revolution (5IR) would soon arrive based on widespread 5G digitization. The large costs of the pandemic have altered global planning – when will the 5G arrive in developing Asia? What are the priorities of Eastern and Western nations? Must COVID management take priority?

- Tadahiro Kawada, President, Kawada Technologies, Japan
- James Seng, Co-founder and Chief Operating Officer, VOY Robotics, Singapore
- Jitesh Shetty, Founder, Qwiklabs (Subsidiary of Google), USA
- Vadim Tarasov, Partner, Advanced Autonomous Solutions Fund, Hong Kong SAR

Chaired by

- Shameem Ahsan, General Partner, Pegasus Tech Ventures, USA

Diversity and Impact Investing

Firms world-wide are being asked, even pushed by investors, to transform from their historic male-dominated boards and C-suites. Women have been shown to increase a firm's performance. Will enforcing a random percentage of newcomers be welcome, will they have the right skill mix and experience? And will they be willing to accept this new responsibility?

- Sunday Adejo, Co-Founder, Biodry2Energy, United Kingdom
- Natalia Blokhina, Co-founder, Brighter Ventures Inc, USA
- Royston Flude, President, CSPOC, Switzerland
- Marc Verissimo, Executive Chairman, Lighter Capital, USA
- Daisuke Takatsuki, Principal, Asia Operations, CVC Capital Partners, Japan

Chaired by

- Bonnie Liao, Executive Director, Social Enterprise Research Academy, Hong Kong SAR

Asian Innovation Clusters Post-COVID

Cluster regions in Asia are closely packed with innovators and venture capitalists with meeting areas to exchange ideas and contracts. The onset of the pandemic pushed all into home-working. How will the concept of 'the cluster' change in the hybrid working post-COVID? Do we, as social animals, still need close, casual contact to innovate?

- Maxim Kiselev, Professor, Skolkovo Institute of Science and Technology, Russia
- Andrea Monni, Co-founder and Managing Partner, Blue Spark Hub, Singapore
- Thian Chew, Managing Partner, Polar Ventures, Hong Kong SAR
- Dinesh Malkani, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Smarten Spaces, Singapore
- Srikanth Reddy, Chief Executive Officer, Sonata Software, India

Chaired by

- Michael Yeoh, President, KSI Strategic Institute for Asia Pacific, Malaysia

Planning for the Future in Asia as Life-Work Balance Alters

Global demographics are changing – fewer babies are born and we live longer. How are Asian governments, firms and individuals planning for the future? Will firms permit older people to work more years? Will Asian governments introduce more long-term health care for the elderly to achieve a fulfilling old age?

- Anthony Chan, Chairman, Gretchen, Hong Kong
- Kewal Handa, Chairman, Salus Lifecare, India
- Anh Hoang, Co-Founder, Sofregen Medical, USA
- Sourav Sinha, Venture Partner, Longevity Vision Fund, USA

Chaired by

- Shailendra Goswami, Chairman and Managing Director, Pushkaraj Group, India

10.30-11.15 Parallel Sessions

Asian Life-style After the Millennials and Gen-Z

Instant media, and always-connected young people have resulted in a frenzied change in Asian social attitudes. What other changes will the new Asian youth attempt – by design or by accident? Should they be advised, mentored or restricted – or is generational change simply natural? How can their potentially extreme changes be moderated?

- Neha Berlia, Member of Management Board, Apeejay Styra Group, India
- Ann Luo, Founder, CodingGirls, Singapore

Chaired by

- Akinori Niimi, Chief Executive Officer, ACA Investments India, Japan

Sustainable Regeneration of Globalization

The world needs to overcome rapidly the ravages of COVID, yet safeguard natural resources, including human ones. Will the mechanisms of trade and re-globalization based on Asia, automation, and AI regenerate too quickly for sustainability to be fully considered? Will the many UN goals be forgotten in the rush to capitalize on new opportunities? Can a future disaster be avoided?

- David Goldsmith, President, Goldsmith Organization, USA
- Shachindra Nath, Executive Chairman, Ugro Capital, India
- Yoshiki Sasaki, Chief Executive Officer, Japan Strategic Capital, Japan

Chaired by

- Worsak Kanok-Nukulchai, Executive Director, Chulalongkorn School of Integrated Innovation, Thailand

Digitization Enables Crypto-Asset Opportunities

The lightly regulated digital financial landscape attracts investors and potential high returns attract personal investors. How to protect the latter while encouraging innovation in FinTech and developing capital markets? Why are there so many retail investors in Asia, especially China? What do they risk? What do they understand about crypto-assets?

- Abiodun Ayorinde, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Dabar Technologies, Nigeria
- Ara Brutian, Director, Sustainalytics, Canada
- Shashidhar Kanukolanu, Chief Executive Officer, e4e Labs, USA
- James Law, Chief Executive Officer, Cybertecture, Hong Kong
- Yemu Xu, Co-founder, Bella Protocol, China

Chaired by

- Paul Sanar, President, Paul Sanar Ventures, USA

Reconceiving Work and Play Post-COVID

The rapid positioning of office-work into the home has disrupted office work. Yet we are social creatures, and casual chat with colleagues enhances innovation and well-being. Is this need different in Asia compared to the West? How will the post-COVID scenario evolve in the different Asian economies?

- Lotfi EL-Ghandouri, Founder, Creative Society Group, Spain
- Kiran Sethi, Chief Executive Officer, Jupiter International Corporation, Japan
- Jim Yuan, Co-founder and Partner, Joyview Education, China

Chaired by

- Lou Marinoff, Professor of Philosophy, The City College of New York, USA

Horasis

The Global Visions Community

Asian Centric Sustainable Finance in Mitigating Climate Change

The UN says greater emphasis should be placed on de-carbonizing heavy industry. Rapidly developing Asian nations must meet their UN commitments while allocating funding to reboot their economies post COVID. How will Asian governments, investors and the banking sector approach the novelty of 'green investment'? How will they support innovation for a green transformation?

- Steven Beck, Head of Trade & Supply Chain Finance, Asian Development Bank, Philippines
- King Au, Executive Director, Financial Services Development Council Hong Kong, Hong Kong SAR
- Kim-See Lim, Regional Director East Asia and the Pacific, International Finance Corporation, Hong Kong SAR
- Satoshi Ikeda, Chief Sustainable Officer, FSA- Financial Services Agency of Japan, Japan
- Sung-hyun Park, Chief Strategy & Sustainability Officer, Shinhan Financial, Korea

Chaired by

- Michael Walsh, Secretary General, PBEC, Hong Kong

Meaningfully Describing Asian Recovery

Economists and reporters find a graphic description useful for communication complex interactions. So, is Asia's economic recovery K-shaped? What does this mean? And does the K-graphic apply equally well across all Asian nations? Who is ahead, and will these nations aid laggards?

- Ruth P. Briones, Chair and Chief Executive Officer, Greenergy Solutions, The Philippines
- Barry Lustig, President, Cormorant Group, Japan

Chaired by

- Usman Ghani, Chairman, ConfluCore, USA

Ending Female Objectification and Harassment

World-wide we see female objectification across media, and in needless actions against females who too often remain silent. This demeans them and permits a misuse of power in the work-place. Is it possible that men and women who have never experienced such harassment stand up against it? Will this level up the work place and make it safer and more egalitarian for all?

- Eden Chu, Chief Executive Officer, Shanghai Interpid Dog Network Technology Co., China
- Annie Kong, Chief Executive Officer, Shanghai Guofang Life, China
- Coco Leng, Chief Executive Officer, Business Speech Coach, China
- Yoyo Ye, National Service Director, Education First, China

Chaired by

- Mei Chen, Founder, Cosmic Citizens, China

The Arts: Contemporary Asian Art Reimagined

New forms of artistic expression develop constantly – some today as a cultural response to the pandemic, and others in reaction to the environmental conditions in Asian and the world. Asian artists throughout history have been avant-garde communicators of the continent's most pressing issues. What is Asian contemporary art? And how do Asian artists and art institutions define the post-COVID era?

- Adam de Boer, Visual Artist, USA
- Winnie Cheng (ERYN), Artist, Malaysia
- Seelan Palay, Visual Artist, Singapore
- Hannah Shin, Artist, South Korea
- Adam Umbar, Visual Artist, Malaysia

Chaired by

- Ethan Cohen, Founder, Ethan Cohen Gallery, USA

11.15-12.00 Parallel Sessions

Developing a Diverse Higher Education Sector

International rankings, sometimes called the Olympic Games of Higher Education (HE), are a driver for universities and governments: they question their reputation, teaching modes, standards, and quality. How has the Asian governmental HE policy embraced internationalization to drive innovation and the entrepreneurial spirit? How do pan-Asian regional norms and expectations inform local educational policies?

- Mayra Andrea, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Clpta Graha Holding, Indonesia
- Kartik Sharma, Co-founder, DcodeAI, India
- Salman Ravala, Board of Trustee, Scholarship America, USA

Chaired by

- Aditya Singh, Director, Athena School of Management, India

Post-COVID Business Sentiment

Developing nations across Asia are lagging in COVID vaccination rates while richer nations are looking for new economic growth. How can rich-world firms support the poorer nations? What is needed to integrate general business development and COVID management?

- Bernhard Bauhofer, Founder and Managing Partner, Sparring Partners, Switzerland
- Liu Hongchuan, Partner, Broad & Bright, China
- Gary Phillips, Chief Executive Officer, OrphoMed Inc, USA
- Steve Singer, Partner, Greenstein, Rogoff, Olsen & Co., USA

Chaired by

- B Thiagarajan, Managing Director, Blue Star Limited, India

Rebuilding Trust in Institutions Post-COVID

Governments and their institutions stumbled over their reaction to the COVID pandemic: trust was rapidly lost. How can these institutions rebuild our trust? Is the nature of institutional trust different across Asia than across the Western world? How long will trust rebuilding take, even as COVID becomes better managed?

- John Blakey, Founder, The Trusted Executive Foundation, United Kingdom
- Nasser Munjee, Chairman, Development Credit Bank, India
- Phil O'Reilly, Director, Iron Duke Partners, New Zealand
- Jayesh Ranjan, Principal Secretary, Government of Telangana, India
- Manfred Zeuch, Vice President, Concordia University of Edmonton, Canada

Chaired by

- Metin Guvener, Founding Chairman, The Salon, United Kingdom

Well-being – Extending this Concept for Asia

In the US, Europe and rich Asian cities disposable income is high – well-ness is sought after. How do the poor across Asia view this concept as they toil, somewhat collectively, to create a sufficiency of food? Asian health styles have created a global market of Alternative Medicine but do the Asian poor use its products? What concepts are missing that link Asian health care to universal well-being modalities?

- Jarvovs Chen, Managing Director, Sinda Corporation UK, United Kingdom
- Andy Habermacher, Founder, leadingbrains, Switzerland

Chaired by

- Petah Marian, Founder, Future Narrative, Australia

Horasis

The Global Visions Community

Absorbing Young Asian Graduates in Work

Asia has a large annual graduate output – many hope to create unicorn firms, some do. The greater problem is to absorb the graduates in meaningful work. How best to employ these young who ought to be unfettered by historical ideas? Which commercial and civic sectors need the numerous graduates of Asia?

- Ichsan Ichsan, Advisor, PT Awina Sinergi International, Indonesia
- Divya Lal, Founder and Managing Director, Fliplearn Education, India
- Nalin Singh, Co-Founder & CEO, Orbit Future Academy, India
- Tieu Yen Trinh, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Talentnet, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Rajiv Raghunath, Chief Executive Officer, Wellversed Media, India

How Asian Entrepreneurs Pioneer Change during COVID-19

COVID-19 is having lasting impact on entrepreneurship, both positive and negative. Those who choose to pivot will succeed whereas those who are hesitant will get disrupted. How to transform tough economic challenges into entrepreneurial opportunities? What are the beliefs, visions, and tactics of the post-COVID generation of Asian entrepreneurs and their global counterparts?

- Greg Crichton, Managing Director, Greater Asian Advisors Limited, Hong Kong SAR
- Amir Hosseini, Co-Founder, Curry Up Now, USA
- Shuva Mandal, Managing Partner, Fox Mandal & Associates, India
- Murthy R Nuni, Managing Partner, Marshal Funds, United Kingdom
- Emidio Do Sacramento, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Zebiometrics, Switzerland

Chaired by

- Deborah Biber, Member of the Board, Pacific Basin Economic Council, Hong Kong SAR

Managing Misinformation

One universal benefit of the spread of mobile phones is that friend-to- friend contact becomes very easy. But equally easy is the insertion of false, fake and inflammatory messages that mislead us. When will social media providers check message content for veracity and delete the fakes? Is this too large a task, even for AI? Will Asian governments move first to regulate mobile phone services?

- Casey Lau, Co-host, RISE, Hong Kong
- Jessica Kantor, Journalist and Communications Director, USA
- Steven Zhou, National Security & Foreign Affairs Journalist, Canada

Chaired by

- Cynthia Johnson, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Bell + Ivy, USA

The Arts: Dreaming of a Shared Humanity

We often do not feel strongly enough that we are part of a united Asia and a larger world. Art can bridge differences and promote togetherness. Which role can art play in instilling values across space and time, in Asia and elsewhere? How can art foster and express our shared humanity?

- Renz Baluyot, Artist, The Philippines
- Nicholas Choong, Visual Artist, Malaysia
- Evi Pangestu, Painter, Indonesia
- Jagath Weerasinghe, Artist and Archeologist. Sri Lanka
- Sichong Xie, Visual Artist, USA/China

Chaired by

- Meg Maggio, Director, Pékin Fine Arts, Hong Kong SAR

12.00-12.45 Plenary Panels

Shaping the New Asia

Global demographic shifts and economic migrations create new opportunities for economies. For instance, how will Asian nations balance their need to reduce COVID-related debts while accruing wealth by the state and by personal investment to support peaceful years for the elderly? How to shape the new Asia? And what role can Asian firms play to give energetic support to regional and global development?

- Vijay Eswaran, Executive Chairman, QI Group, Hong Kong
 - Neeraj Kulshrestha, Chief Regulatory Officer, BSE, India
 - Oki Matsumoto, Chairman, Monex Group, Japan
 - Herbert Chen Wu, Managing Director, The Economist Global Business Review, China
- Chaired by*
- Pranjal Sharma, Contributing Editor, Business Standard, India

Horasis Community Building

Each participant will be randomly matched with another to speak for 5 minutes by video, then become paired with another, and so on. By these mechanisms' delegates will become acquainted with others of a like mind - exchanging ideas, and potentially creating partnerships.

12.45-13.30 Plenary Panels

Asian Economic Development in Post-COVID Recovery

COVID has not changed fundamentals though global supply and demand became unbalanced. Many Asian firms survived the first COVID wave, secondary infection was severe - when will supply chains be fully rebuilt out of Asia and become stable? What novel ideas and products are supporting strong Asian economic development?

- Meenakshi Lekhi, Minister of State for External Affairs and Culture, India
- Nguyen Minh Vu, Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs, Vietnam
- Sansern Samalapa, Vice Minister of Commerce, Thailand

Chaired by

- Tsutomu Ishiai, Deputy Managing Editor, The Asahi Shimbun, Japan

Kitakyushu: Host City of Horasis Asia Meeting in 2022

The City of Kitakyushu made an important contribution to the country's economic development with its vast experience in overcoming historic levels of pollution. The City has embraced green and sustainable growth; the City was selected for Green Growth Model City and SDG's Global Model City by OECD. In 2020, the City of Kitakyushu declared itself a "Zero Carbon City" with the aim of achieving net-zero greenhouse gas emissions by 2050. Learn more about the City of Kitakyushu, a host city of Horasis Asia Meeting in 2022.

Chaired by

- Kenji Kitahashi, Mayor of Kitakyushu, Japan

13.30-14.15 Plenary Panels

Sustainable Asian Growth

The City of Kitakyushu has shown the way towards sustainability for Japan; and now, with RCEP, the broader region enters a new economic future combining macroeconomic policies to combat city and regional unemployment, poverty and community building. Are their models exportable into the complex relations across the Asia-Pacific region? What are the key drivers for Japan and the wider Asian region?

- Erik Berglof, Chief Economist, Asia Infrastructure Investment Bank, China
 - Naushad Forbes, Co-Chairman, Forbes Marshall, India
 - Tatsuo Hatta, President, Asian Growth Research Institute, Japan
 - Vinod Sekhar, Chairman and Group Chief Executive Officer, Petra Group, Malaysia
- Chaired by*
- Cod Satrusayang, Editor in Chief, Thai Enquirer, Thailand

China's Future Growth and Reforms

China, over many years, has conducted many reforms and achieved massive economic growth lifting millions from poverty. Presently its progress must take account of its COVID management. Will its massive graduate output create enough innovation to overcome the recent global economic drag? What does its future hold?

- Roger King, Founder and Chairman, ODS Holdings Inc., Hong Kong
 - David Pan, Executive Dean, Schwarzman College, Tsinghua University, China
 - Wang Dong, Executive Director, Institute for Global Cooperation and Understanding, Peking University, China
- Chaired by*
- Martina Fuchs, Business Correspondent, Xinhua, Switzerland

14.15-15.00 Parallel Sessions

The SDG Goal #8 Demands Decent Work for All

The onset of COVID and job insecurity in this era of late-stage capitalism hinder the achievement of SDG8. How badly has COVID affected workers in East and South-East Asia? What can be done to shore up their livelihoods through fiscal and social innovation? By how much has Asian innovation and entrepreneurship been restricted by COVID?

- Bonnie Factor, Co-founder, eCFulfill, The Philippines
 - Pietro Paganini, Co-founder, Competere, Italy
 - Ofer Vexler, Co-founder, N.A.M. Technology, Israel
 - Przemek Alex Schmidt, Chairman of the Supervisory Board, Capitea, Poland
 - Kathryn Woof, Co-founder and Managing Director, 33 Talent, Singapore
- Chaired by*
- Alejandro Reyes, Professor, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong

Being Bold About Asian Private Investment Risks

Asian nations have decided to increase infrastructure investments post-Covid to aid their growth in technology and entrepreneurship. They do not have the history of the European and American financial markets, or the knowledge span of those regulators. What are the clues and hints about rules that Asian regulators might impose? What is the knowledge to guide investors? Are investors still using gut feelings to measure opportunities and drive success?

- Mahesh M Gandhi, Managing Director, AFII Capital, Germany
- Hiroyuki Ohnishi, Chief Executive Officer, Technology Seed Incubation Co., Japan
- Leon Toh, Executive Director, Damson Capital, Singapore
- Zheng Fei, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, TaoXin Consulting, China

Chaired by

- Pieter Perrett, Professor, University of Applied Sciences Northwestern Switzerland, Switzerland

UN Goals Demand Gender Equality

Many cultures consider women as unequal to men despite their government's acceptance of UN goals. Even as most Asian demographics are falling some nations rebuff half their potential workforce. How will they manage their future? Will they suffer sanctions for missing some UN goals? How may their attitudes be changed?

- Constance Agyeman, Director, International Development, Nesta Challenges, United Kingdom
- Ayumi Moore Aoki, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Women in Tech, France
- Amelia Lopez Huix, General Partner, MCI Partners, The Netherlands
- Hedwige Nuyens, Managing Director, International Banking Federation, United Kingdom
- Deborah Wang, Chief Executive Officer, Kingdom Investment and Development, USA

Chaired by

- Preeti Dubey, Founder and Director, Strive High, Singapore

Exploring the Resolve of RCEP Post-COVID

The development of new political accords spanning continents and cultures often need some years of growth and good news to enable local-area developments to grow. COVID has halted much progress. How will the Asian nations within RCEP extend their trust to achieve their goals? What are their new agendas post-COVID? Will their accords lead to deepening economic partnerships?

- Lisa McAuley, Chief Executive Officer, Global Trade Professionals Alliance (GTPA), Australia
- Ricardo Meléndez-Ortiz, Founder and Fellow, CaeruleuM, USA
- Yasunori Naito, Chief Executive Officer, Uzabase Asia-Pacific, Singapore
- Pranjal Sharma, Contributing Editor, Business Standard, India

Chaired by

- Joël Ruet, Chairman, TheBridgeTank, France

Progression Towards Cashless Societies

Asian nations aspiring to be cash-less by 2022 had a strong middle class, digital banking and strong e-commerce. COVID has intervened pushing many into poverty and delaying national digital banking. How will the poor and newly-poor survive de-cashing? What support is needed for the left-behinds of our world?

- Mattias Bergström, Chief Executive Officer, Quantum1Net, Spain
- Kamales Lardi, Chief Executive Partner, Lardi & Partner Consulting, Switzerland
- Cherie Wang, Founder, Planner Bee, Singapore
- Lu Zhang, Founder and Managing Partner, Fusion Fund, USA

Chaired by

- Amandeep Midha, Founder, Nerd9, Denmark

Maintaining Asia's Internet Integration Across the World

Supply chain movements rely on wireless links to check progress and security. This service must connect globally from Asia across the world. If nations build their own firewalls, commonality becomes fragile, if not lost. How can we be assured of global communications while maintaining a nation's right to control messaging? Might this prevent citizens accessing the Web and its data?

- Jerry Power, Founder, I3 Systems, USA
- Danny Teal, Chief Executive Officer, Data Logical Services, USA
- Christoph Stueckelberger, Founder and President, Globethics.net Foundation, Switzerland
- Daniel Zaretsky, Co-Founder, World Influencers Network, Uzbekistan

Chaired by

- Wolfgang Lehmacher, Operating Partner, Anchor Group, Hong Kong SAR

Thriving on Diversity

The SDG goals advise governments to support their many ethnic sub-groups and preserve their languages. In the modern 'blue jeans' conformity, how do Asian governments reach out to their ethnic communities yet meet loftier common standards across the nation? Are local communities at risk?

- Yash Chandan, Founder, Biopapro, India
- Stuart Hutton, Chief Investment Officer, Simply Ethical, United Kingdom
- Sagar Suri, Advocate, Supreme Court of India, India

Chaired by

- Anuradha Agarwal, Founder, Think North Consulting, India

Supporting Stability while Nurturing Disruptors

Asian developing nations strive to extend the concepts of stable growth to alleviate the poverty trap. Disruption through economic factors and habitat change is worrying, and digitization impossible to grasp. How to merge digital disruption into better education, health and general well-being initiatives? What to change first, how and who is best equipped to do so?

- Alexander Athanassoulas, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Stirixis, Greece
- Jean-Pierre Cubizolle, Founder and Managing Director, CHC, Switzerland

Chaired by

- Sudha Bhushan, Co-Founder, Taxpert Professionals, India

Mergers and Acquisitions within Asian Trade Accords

Business leaders enjoy the progress afforded by M&A activity if they are well conceived. Are political leaders willing to enter the M&A churn to simplify the proliferation of regional trade accords? What mergers would make sense across the Asia/Pacific/African region? Which nation might lead such changes?

- Li Xu, Founder, International Mergers & Acquisitions, USA
 - Siddhaant Mohta, Consultant, Dentons, India
 - Yogesh Singh, National Co-Head of the Corporate Practice and Partner, Trilegal, India
- Chaired by*
- Timothy J. Nichol, Dean, Liverpool Business School, United Kingdom

Enhancing Connectivity and Freight in Central Asia

Central Asia has been peripheral to global trade flows despite its historical role as the land bridge between Asia and Europe. The region's economic integration is limited by low density of settlement, infrastructure bottlenecks, ageing road and rail networks, long distances to major markets and regulatory and policy barriers. Will Central Asia be able to break away from its reliance on exports of primary products? Can initiatives for enhancing connectivity help Central Asian economies to prosper?

- Babar Badat, Former President and Honorary Member of the Board, FIATA, Pakistan
 - Claude Beglé, President, SymbioSwiss, Switzerland
 - Martin Voetmann, Member of the Board, DP World, Kazakhstan
 - Aftaab Khatib, Vice President, Caspian Container Company, Switzerland
- Chaired by*
- Murat Seitnepesov, Chairman, Caspian Week, Switzerland

Educating the World's Poor

The World Bank estimate of the 740 million extreme poor, about half live in five countries, mostly across Asia; and half the total are children. How to reach to these people to offer education that initiates self-support? How to deliver electricity, hardware systems, and importantly the concept of education as a force for good? Are there any strong globally-proven models leading to change?

- Khurram Jamil, Co-founder and President, Area9 Lyceum, Denmark
 - RL Narayanan, Vice Chairman, Centre for Innovation in Education and Empowerment, India
 - Alec Wang, Founder and President, Tana Investment Group, USA
- Chaired by*
- Atul Temurnikar, Executive Chairman Global Schools Foundation, Singapore

15.00-15.45 Parallel Sessions

The New Management of Cyber-transformation

Blockchain is a broad and transformative service, of which money substitution is a small part. Many consider only crypto-coinage, and note this resource may be a hazardous bubble investment – how will regulators engage in cyber-coin management? As blockchain is the base of the crypto-services, what other rules and regulations might be suggested to manage the sector locally and internationally? When will its management be formalized?

- Anton Golub, Co-founder and Chief Executive Officer, flov technologies, Switzerland
- Ted Katagi, Chief Executive Officer, Kenja, Japan
- Elizabeth Rossiello, Chief Executive Officer and Founder, AZA, United Kingdom
- Swaneet Singh, Chief Executive Officer, Mzaalo, India
- Sam Yilmaz, General Partner, Bloccelerate VC, USA

Chaired by

- Girish Ramachandran, President Asia Pacific, TCS, Singapore

Philanthropy Makes a Difference Across Asia

There is no doubt that well-applied philanthropy has rendered considerable benefits. Might Asian donors combine with global institutions to form a needs-management action group to better administer funds? Where would aid be best applied?

- Mounir Khouzami, President and Co-Founder, Swiss Arab Network, Switzerland
- Peter Lazou, Founding Member, Otherdots Foundation, United Kingdom
- Rajiv Luthra, Founder and Managing Partner, Luthra & Luthra, India

Chaired by

- Marcelo Garcia, Founder, WisdomAccelerator.org, Switzerland

Eco-management of Mega-Infrastructures

Asian people are moving to their cities in huge numbers creating issues for health, education and logistics as families search for economic livelihoods. Can legacy city infrastructures be rescued or are new towns the answer: what are the development priorities? Are the new-town solutions valid across Asia or are their development unique to a nation? What is the timescale – to build, populate, and become a vibrant life-force?

- Yilmaz Argüden, Chairman, ARGE Consulting, Turkey
- Milivoje Batista, Chief Executive Officer, AtromG8, Switzerland
- Daniela Herrmann, Founder, Topan, Switzerland
- Simon Lovegrove, Chief Executive, M Health Limited, United Kingdom

Chaired by

- Andre Kwok, Founder, Good City Foundation, Hong Kong SAR

Horasis

The Global Visions Community

Business Leaders and their Theories in Times of Turbulence

For many years business schools taught management development through years of global growth, wherein perturbances were brief, local and western. Now there are pandemics, with disrupted global supply chains and Asian-inspired policies. What are the new management learnings and dogma applicable in Asia? What are the themes young managers use?

- Luis Miguel Aboitiz, Director, Aboitiz & Co., The Philippines
- Ciprian Dan Costea, Member of the Board, Autonova, Romania
- Yves Decadt, Chief Executive Officer, BioLingus, Switzerland
- Uwe Michel, Executive Vice President, Allianz, Germany
- Nguyen Viet Long, Director, Department of Science and Technology, Binh Duong Province, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Annette Nijs, Former Cabinet Minister for Education, Science and Culture, The Netherlands

Developing Social Innovation and Enterprise

The advent of home-working during the COVID lockdowns illustrated that massively dispersed work was possible: it also showed how we missed the sociability of work. Post-COVID, how will enterprises big and small create hybrid work modes to develop a stronger entrepreneurial spirit? Are Asian and Western hybrid theories interchangeable worldwide?

- Suman Bose, Principal and Co-founder, GoFar Advisory and Investments, Singapore
- Tris Dyson, Founder and Executive Director, Nesta Challenges, United Kingdom
- Dariusz Gibasiewicz, Chief Executive Officer, SATIS, Poland
- Nkem Khumbah, Chairman, Africa Development Futures Group, USA
- Rufus Lidman, Founder, AIAR EdTech, Singapore

Chaired by

- Vijay Sambamurthi, Founder and Managing Partner, Lexygen, India

The Rush for Clean Energy Across Asia

As the world rushes to decarbonize politicians look for cleaner energy sources. Pure hydrogen is one: some advocate using natural gas to create it, finding too late it is dirtier than coal as a primary energy source. When will governments publicize their plans to decarbonize? Are decarbonizing science breakthroughs over emphasized in terms of cost and time – or ignored?

- Andrew Bright, Managing Director, Woodside Capital, Switzerland
- Sergey Demin, Chief Executive Officer, Rosatom Japan, Japan
- Devin Narang, Managing Director, Sindicatum Sustainable Resource, India
- Christian Rangen, Co-founder, Engage // Innovate, Norway
- Natalie Samovich, Co-founder, Enercoutim, Portugal

Chaired by

- Shefali Rekhi, Editor, Asia News Network, The Straits Times., Singapore

Entrepreneurship Development Across Asia

Being an innovator involves breaking the status quo. How were the financial and other massive business empires initiated and grown in Asia? What fundamentals allowed some Asian firms to achieve global dominance? What will be the effect if Asian governments restrict their innovative firm's growth? Will entrepreneurship halt?

- Eliezer Manor, President, Shirat Enterprises, Israel
- Shun Nagao, Venture Partner, White Star Capital, Japan
- Stephen Phillips, Director General, Invest Hong Kong, Hong Kong
- Sinartus Sosrodjo, Value Creation Advisor, Damson Capital, Singapore

Chaired by

- Renita Kalhorn, Executive Coach, USA

Reviewing the Belt and Road Concept

President Xi Jinping initiated the B&R Initiative in 2013 as a belt-way of roads, rails and sea-ways inter-connecting development hubs extending from China. It has grown from a Sinocentric project to one of linking most nations by trading routes and by initiating development hubs. How to increase its sustainability while developing its massive growth potentials?

- Kolapo Lawson, Chairman, LandAfrique Holdings, Nigeria
- Donny Huang, Founder and Managing Director, 4stones, China
- Ikram Sehgal, Chairman, Pathfinder Group, Pakistan
- Charles Tang, President, Brazil China Chamber of Commerce, Brazil
- Xiang Bing, Founding Dean, Cheung Kong Graduate School of Business (CKGSB), China

Chaired by

- Winston Mok, Private Investor and Columnist, South China Morning Post, China

Reforms Stimulate Foreign Investors

Investors in the US and the EU, partly based on fund-pumping to combat their COVID depression, react by investing in Asia, stimulated by government reforms supporting economic growth. How does the investment landscape in Asia look like? Will governments continue to be supportive beyond COVID?

- Fred Burke, Senior Advisor, Baker & McKenzie (Vietnam), Vietnam
- Victor Guixer, Managing Partner, Guixer & Partners, Spain
- Xin Ma, Managing Director, TotalEnergies Ventures, France
- Ferial Mostofi, Chairwoman, China-Iran Chamber of Commerce, Hong Kong
- Saurabh Shukla, Founder and Editor in Chief, NewsMobile, India

Chaired by

- Courtney Fingar, Editor-in-chief, Investment Monitor, United Kingdom

The Arts: Movies and Cinema - Exploring New Avenues for Impact

The COVID-19 had profound repercussions on the movie industry. As filmmakers and artists are struggling to get back on set, the cinema world is also witnessing rapid transformations with the advent of online streaming platforms. How can filmmakers adapt to this new changing environment? What role can artists play to foster greater social good and impact?

- Punit Desai, Founder, October Cinemas, India
- Benjamin Galazzo, Founder and Producer, Primo Pictures, Singapore
- Fred Wang, Founder, Salon Media, Hong Kong SAR

Chaired by

- Priya Samant, Impact Advisor and Director, Sequoia Applied Technologies, USA

15.45-16.30 Parallel Sessions

The Future of Manufacturing Efficiency Across Asia

In the past Asian economic growth has been dominated by its low wage status. In the future, with a broad demographic decline forecast, Asian firms must adopt labor efficient processes furloughing many workers. How disruptive will this be? Who will supplement the loss of workers' wages – the firms, the governments or both? Are there any global exemplars of massive social support mechanisms?

- Girish Bhagat, Chairman, Saleri India, India
- Mathias Ernst, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Essentia Futura International, USA
- Li Zhongtao, Chief Executive Officer, Capsio Technology Co., China
- Peter Pier, Chief Executive Officer, Omya Asia Pacific, Singapore

Chaired by

- Zhou Yi, Co-founder, MarvelTec, Hong Kong SAR

Mechanisms for Avoiding the Next Pandemic

Many leading scientists say about $30 billion spent on research might avoid the next pandemic. Many people think pandemic research is too costly, and wish to have cash-in-hand for their own benefit. How to judge what is best or right for humankind? What are our judgement criteria and how should we persuade the tax-paying citizen to research a cure for the unknown future pandemic?

- Virginie Coulloudon, Executive Director, Your Public Value, Germany
- Kerri Cummings, Founder, Mindbar, Germany
- Yan Liu, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Biocaptivate, USA
- Louis Metzger, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Deep Views Inc, USA
- Mikhail Treyvish, President, OmniGrade Universal Crowdsourcing Agency, Russia

Chaired by

- Murat Seitnepesov, Chairman, Caspian Week, Switzerland

Compensating for Lost Tourism

The UN Conference on Trade and Development suggests over $4 trillion will be lost by the tourism sector from 2020 through 2021. It is worse than they expected, with South-East Asia suffering a slump of 7% in local GDP. How might governments support the direct losses and in supportive sectors like the food and beverages sectors? How to protect the newly out-of-work in the unskilled labor force?

- Antonio Cantalapiedra, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Woonivers, Spain
- Dinesh Dhamija, Founder and Chairman, Copper Beech Group, United Kingdom
- Genri Goto, Chief Executive Officer, Kotozna Inc, Japan
- Sonu Shivdasani, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Soneva, Thailand

Chaired by

- Diana Sabrain, Co-founder, OneAgrix, Singapore

Expanding Japan's Free Trade Agreements in Asia

Japan has greatly increased its FTAs to enhance global trade: perhaps most crucial is the development of multi-lateral free trade within the Asian region. What are the pros and cons of FTAs for Japan external to Asia? Is such a single nation review meaningful when material and subtle benefits accrue to a region? How can global institutions aid multi-literalism?

- Asif Iqbal, President, Indian Economic Trade Organization (IETO), India
- Tsutomu Ishiai, Deputy Managing Editor, The Asahi Shimbun, Japan
- Noritaka Kobayashi, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Bajji, Inc, Japan
- Tatsuya Masubuchi, Chief Executive Officer, HighNetWorthLab, Japan

Chaired by

- Tomohiko Taniguchi, Professor, Keio University Graduate School of System Design and Management, Japan

How Sustainable is the Post-COVID Economic Reform?

Governments across Asia are pumping cash to households and businesses to help them survive the COVID crisis. They don't seem concerned about sovereign debt repayment – but will a rise in future taxes be an acceptable outcome? Central bankers seem to be permitting a rise in inflation –how will this effect out-of-work individuals?

- Nico Anten, Executive Chairman, Connekt, The Netherlands
- Peter Brimble, Private Sector Development Adviser, DAI Global UK, United Kingdom
- Dwight N. Hopkins, Founding Director, ESG Research Initiative Center at the University of Chicago, USA

Chaired by

- Richard Rekhy, Member of the Board, KPMG, UAE

Enumerating the Risks of Supply and Demand for Energy

As Asian nations develop their industry and individuals demand more electrical power. They ought also to meet the UN SDGs and climate change goals. Where is the balance? Who will bear the brunt of the many changes? Will anyone be brave enough, or be permitted, to publish an honest evaluation of the costs and probable effects of meeting or missing the goals?

- Pranav Bhanage, Chief Executive Officer, Petronas Lubricant (India), India
- Camille Levy, President Asia Pacific, Howden, Singapore
- Scott Mackin, Managing Partner, Denham Capital Management, United Kingdom
- Rajiv Mathur, Managing Director, The Fuel Delivery, India
- Sreekanth Venkataraman, Energy Consulting Practice Lead, The Digital Economist, USA

Chaired by

- Ananda Setiyo Ivannanto, Chief Executive Officer, A-Wing Group, Indonesia

Leveling the Playing Field – the Global 15% Minimum Tax Rate

Almost all nations and jurisdictions world-wide have committed to merge this new accord into their own systems. What will be its effect be on the developing nations of Asia? Will a higher corporate tax slow inwards investment? Will existing low tax regimes agree to lift their current rates? Why did the G20 (comprising mainly of rich nations) agree to this change in July 2021?

- Miguel Reynolds Brandão, Founder, Corkbrick Europe, Portugal
- Michael Durrie, Founding Partner, LHD Associates, Germany
- Alok Patnia, Managing Partner, Taxmantra Global, Singapore

Chaired by

- Arun Sharma, President, Grovepike Associates, USA

Asians as Futurists

Asian innovation seems to accelerate – even within globally desynchronized pandemic waves. Economies are pressed by the COVID mutations. How will the new Asian revolutionary technology - AI and so on - impact the Asian world which hosts massive populations? How will their economies, geopolitics and organizations change? What technologies might rise to the fore?

- Bernard Moon, Co-founder and Partner, SparkLabs Group, USA
- Clas Neumann, Senior Vice President, SAP, China
- Jae Lee, Vice President of Engineering, Quincus, Singapore
- Sudhir Sharma, Chairman, Mitkat Advisory Services, India

Chaired by

- Benjamin J. Butler, Co-Founder, Quantum Futures, Hong Kong

The Arts: Culture and Decolonization in Asia

The history of Asian art has long been dominated by the inescapable shadow of colonization where art paid tribute to the European colonial tradition. How to enter a new chapter of appreciation for decolonizing identity in Asian art, reflecting the diversity of each artist's own character? What would it mean to make space for a different kind of artistic expression?

- Heri Dono, Artist, Indonesia
- Arahmaiani Feisal, Artist, Indonesia
- Ye Funa, Artist, China

Chaired by

- Martin Schulze, Founder and Director, Public Delivery, Korea

16.30-17.15 Plenary Panels

The Great Game: India's Place and Role in New Asia

India's security and economic interests are impacted by a churn in America's Asia strategy and a growing assertiveness of China. The rearrangement of pieces on the geopolitical chess board requires India to reassess its position and strategy. How can India manage the impact of the events on its northern border and western neighbourhood? How should India balance its relationship with all stakeholders in Asia to look after its security and economic interests?

- Suresh Prabhu, 6 times Member of Parliament and former Cabinet Minister, India
- Pramod Bhasin, Chairman, Clix Capital Services, India
- Harshvardhan Neotia, Chairman, Ambuja Neotia Group, India

Introduced by

- Rekha Sethi, Director General, All India Management Association (AIMA), India

Chaired by

- Sunil Kant Munjal, Chairman, Hero Corporate Services, India

Exploring Investment to Accelerate Indonesia's Agenda in dealing with Climate Crisis

52 million population in Indonesia especially in the coastal areas will be drown due to the effect of climate change in the year 2050. Until 2030 Indonesia needs 266 billion USD to overcome climate change and currently only 21 percent of that can be fulfilled. What effective action and strategies does Indonesia needs to attempt to solve this dire problem?

- Fadli Syamsudin, Ocean and Fisheries Department Head, West Sulawesi Province, Indonesia
- Amalia Adininggar Widyasanti, Deputy Minister for Economic Affairs, Indonesia
- Darwin Trisna Djajawinata, Chief Financial Officer, PT Sarana Multi Infrastruktur, Indonesia
- Nobumitsu Akai, Director, JFR Co, Japan

Chaired by

- Ananda Setiyo Ivannanto, Chief Executive Officer, A-Wing Group, Indonesia

17.15-18.00 Closing Plenary Panels

Enhancing Asian Sustainability

Asia has shown how management foresight can create transforming regional trade accords to become exemplars of sustainability. How to explain and sell the idea of continued green growth when some institutions and individuals remain skeptical? What new mind-set is needed to create truly sustainable growth?

- Bo Inge Andersson, Chief Executive Officer, Uzauto Motors, Uzbekistan
- Kris Gopalakrishnan, Chairman, Axilor Ventures, India
- Girish Ramachandran, President Asia Pacific, TCS, Singapore
- Ranil Wickremesinghe, Former Prime Minister, Sri Lanka

Chaired by

- Rosalind Mathieson, Executive Editor, International Government News, Bloomberg, UK

Addressing the 3-S Challenge: Sovereignty, Sustainability, and Social Impact

A general distrust with the role of global multinationals has become the norm in many societies in Asia-Pacific, Europe, the Middle East, and Africa. Stakeholders have been voicing their expectation that companies provide better answers to their digital sovereignty needs, clear answers on their social impact, and on companies' sustainability strategies. Getting this 3-S challenge right is paramount to the survival not only of companies and nation states, but of our world at large. What are intelligent technological and organizational response to this challenge?

- Sandiaga Salahuddin Uno, Minister of Tourism and Creative Economy, Indonesia
- Shashi Tharoor, Chairman, Parliament Standing Committee on IT, India
- Philipp Mueller, Head Core Government EMEA, Amazon Web Services, Germany

Chaired by

- Anir Chowdhury, Member of the Prime Minister's National Digital Task Force, Bangladesh

18.00-18.05 Summary: The Asian Regeneration Post-COVID

Asian governments are considering how to regenerate stability and growth – not only of wealth, but across the fundamentals of education, food and water security and well-being while building from the ravages of COVID. The future looks good. How will this be addressed by the Asian community? What have we learned from this Horasis Asia Meeting?

Summarized by

- Frank-Jürgen Richter, Chairman, Horasis, Switzerland
- Vinod Sekhar, Chairman and Group Chief Executive Officer, Petra Group, Malaysia

18.05-18.15 Announcing the 2022 Horasis Asia Meeting

The 2022 Horasis Asia Meeting will take place in Kitakyushu, Japan over 28-29 November. Kitakyushu City. The Mayor of Kitakyushu will give an overview of the meeting.

- Kenichiro Takaki, Chairman City Council, Kitakyushu, Japan

18.15-19.00 Closing Parallel Sessions

Leveraging Technology for Social Impact Across Asia

Technology has always been a driver of change but it requires a purpose to serve the greater public good. Within the COVID-isolation many innovators have been stifled and their creativity is unfulfilled. Are their distinctly Asian ways to embrace technology to achieve real social impact? How to judge what may be best for our future? Might the successes be utilized globally?

- Yonca Braeckman, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Impact Shakers, Portugal
- Tim Kobe, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Eight Inc, Singapore
- Steven Klemencic, Managing Director, Ankura, USA
- Michele Mosca, Co-founder and President, evolutionQ Inc, Canada
- Nguyen Anh Tuan, Chief Executive Officer, Boston Global Forum, USA

Chaired by

- Philipp Mueller, Head Core Government EMEA, Amazon Web Services, Germany

Explaining the Unknown: Accepting Artificial Intelligence

AI vastly reduces human intervention across many industrial, commercial, scientific and service sectors. The AI systems still need training systems to become 'intelligent'. How can we judge the results of AI systems if their training data base is biased by the national blocking and filtering of their Web services?

- Jeh Daruvala, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Yactraq Online, Canada
- Theodore Roos, Head of Client Services, pymetrics, USA
- Ed Sewell, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Velocity AI, USA
- Amir Yaar, Chief Executive Officer and Partner, Evolution Water, Israel

Chaired by

- David Bruemmer, Chief Strategy Officer, NextDroid, USA

Story Telling: A Rich Picture of the Future

For long the Asian storyteller has been an accepted thorn in the side of the powerful. There have been epic tales and fantasies, and there are prophecies that will become epic if proved correct. What do today's storytellers foretell of our future? What are the rules for the judges? Which tales ought we to heed and why?

- Zurab Ashvil, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, L3COS, United Kingdom
- Ned Cloonan, Chairman, Ned Cloonan Associates, USA
- Jordi Ràfols, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Innoget, Spain

Chaired by

- John Cook, Chairman, Rock Lake Advisors, Switzerland

Falling GDP Growth of China's Maturing Economy

It has been observed as economies mature their GDP growth falls: China ought to be no exception to this rule of thumb. What worries the Chinese strategists? Might it be their fear of national inertia having set growth, innovation and entrepreneurship as paramount - is its headlong pace too strong? Is Chinese society changing too rapidly – what will be its new characteristics if left unfettered?

- Craig Allen, President, US-China Business Council, USA
- Harry Hui, Founder and Managing Partner, ClearVue Partners, China
- Wang Huiyao, Founder & President, Center for China & Globalization, China
- Chip Zhu, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Keystone Capital, China

Chaired by

- Martina Fuchs, Business Correspondent, Xinhua, Switzerland

COVID-proofing of Asian Businesses

In chaotic times rapid strategy re-formulation is often needed. How have Asian businesses found the time for this during the waves of the pandemic? Where did they do it, as attending a retreat was not possible, or was via a dispersed digitally moderated Board room? Has working from home reduced Asian innovation and entrepreneurship overall?

- Trista Bridges, Principal and Co-founder, Read the Air, Japan
- Michael Johnston, Member of the Board, The Capital Group Companies, USA
- Santosh Kaveti, Chairman and Founder, ProArch, India
- Yurong Li, Chief Executive Officer, Lipatech, USA
- Toshihiro Toyoshima, Chief Executive Officer, Mercuria Investment Co., Japan

Chaired by

- Niraj Sharan, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Aura, India

Changing the Overwork Culture

Once only Japan's males suffered increasing suicide numbers through overworking - now it is a global and gender-free issue. The WHO thinks a third of all deaths are due to overwork, and the COVID pandemic has increased its overall risk. Will firms grasp the idea that such work pressure is absolutely wrong? How will they manage their staff's mental health – what are the first steps?

- Sanjoe Jose, Chief Executive Officer, Talview, USA
- Betty Enyo Kumahor, Founder and Managing Partner, The Cobalt Partners, Ghana
- Zheng Wanshi, Group Chief Strategy & Planning Officer, Frasers Property, Singapore

Chaired by

- Preeyam Budhia, President, Business Development, Patton Group of Companies, India

Reducing the Panic of Logistics Providers

The COVID pandemic within the trade disputes between the US, Europe and China have almost halted global supply chains. Boats and containers, supply and demand are all misbalanced. By when will new ventures ameliorate the global situation so raise global GDP? Is it more than recreating trust between all parties? What level of COVID cases will be tolerated nation by nation for the benefit of all? Who will lead the global renewal process?

- Rafael Cascales, President, Spanish Association for Foreign Trade and International Business Professionals, Spain
- Hugo Roppel, Chairman, GLG Logistics Systems, Switzerland
- Shamika Sirimanne, Director, Division on Technology and Logistics, UNCTAD, Switzerland
- Rohan Shetty, Co-founder, Icon Maritime Technologies Group, USA

Chaired by

- Alexander R. Malaket, President, OPUS Advisory Services International Inc, Canada

Sustainability of Brands Post-COVID

COVID management has created a subtlety about sustainability – via the media consumers are advised to support brands that incline to environment, sustainability and governance end-to-end through their supply chains. Will these brands be more or less sustainable in a fully recovered future when demand is increased? What more is needed to encourage deep sustainability?

- Gary Barker, Director of Sustainability, Nexgen Packaging, USA
- Jessie Dong, Founder, Joowaa, China
- Firdaus Kharas, Chairman, Chocolate Moose Media, Canada
- Yasho Saboo, Founder and Managing Director, KDDL-Taratec, India

Chaired by

- Rachel Catanach, President Greater China, FleishmanHillard, Hong Kong SAR

Asian Strategies in the Digital Pandemized Age

In theory goods are created, offered and delivered via a flexible seamless mesh of digitally facilitated producers, logistics and FinTech firms. Many small firms across Asia are not fully digitized. How will these firms change their structures and strategies to compete for virtual personnel, services, and goods in a world broken into isolated lockdown cells by COVID-19, or by a future pandemic?

- Terry von Bibra, Director, Numenos, Germany
- Susanne Hannestad, Chief Executive Officer, Fintech Mundi, Norway
- Andrew McGregor, Director and Founder, Oomvelt Research, USA
- Neelima Parasker, President and Chief Executive Officer, SnapIT Solutions, USA

Chaired by

- Louis Li, Chief Executive Officer, Pacific Founder Ventures, China

Envisioning Asia's Future Digital Economy

The ways in which Asian citizens connect with others is being transformed through digital technologies despite the rigors of COVID. How to embrace technological disruption as well as maintaining a natural caution about novel solutions? And how to shape systems offering a wide-spread open navigation leading to fully digitized and integrated Asian economies?

- Chevy Beh, Founder, BookDoc, Malaysia
- Nadine Bruder, Founder, JUST DAMN RIGHT, Germany
- Sanjeev Kumar, Chief Executive Officer, D+O Group, United Kingdom
- Rob Leslie, Founder, Sedicii, Ireland
- Trieu Nguyen, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, PrimeData.ai, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Arvind Sethumadhavan, Founder, The AI Living Lab, Singapore

Solutions for an Impact-led Recovery

The impact of COVID-19 on Asia has been enormous; however, in adversity there is opportunity. Although Asian firms and institutions are furloughed, some are seizing the moment to realign profit with social and environmental impact. Who will lead an Asian regeneration based on impact investing principles? How can Asian firms be globally integrated?

- Blessing Ayemhere, Chief Executive Officer, Umugini Pipeline Infrastructure, Nigeria
- Calvin D'souza, Associate Managing Director, Kroll, Canada
- Christine Koetsier, Chief Executive Officer, GEM Partners, The Netherlands
- Marina Schmatova, Member of the Scientific Council, Financial University under the Government of the Russian Federation, Russia

Chaired by

- Serge Dumont, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Asia Society France, France

Disintermediating Supply Chains in Asia

Asian SMEs face inefficiencies in supply chains. SME's rarely have access to global producers, deal with fragmented and incomplete information, and source commodities through numerous intermediaries. Are Asian SMEs ready to source commodities directly from producers or foreign suppliers? Can digitization of supply help Asian SMEs to decrease their cost of sourcing?

- Cristiano Fibbi, Head of Strategy, Integral Group, Switzerland

Chaired by

- Murat Seitnepesov, Chairman, Caspian Week, Switzerland

The Greatest Generational Wealth Transfer in World History is Now!

The global and Asian communities of Millennial inheritors are known to be ESG conscious, tech savvy and lead the charge in this tidal wave of generational wealth transfer. What are the values, vision and objectives of this more socially focused "future 1 percent" in Asia and Internationally? Will the direction of this new breed of private wealth leaders galvanize a new order of positive social impact and greater wealth distribution?

- Bob Garratt, Director, Good Governance Development Ltd, United Kingdom
- Pamela Lau, Managing Director, Green Gold Group, Indonesia
- Phong C. Nguyen, Director, WLC Group, Singapore

Chaired by

- Peter J R Aylwin, Director, Aetos Limited, United Kingdom

Horasis

The Global Visions Community

The Arts: Having a Critical Role Post-COVID

Creative artists express modes of enquiry that may translate our knowledge into impactful social awareness – an important learning post-COVID. How may we imagine a multi-disciplined approach that will break siloed thinking about recovery modes to build into a new artistic vibrancy? How will artists develop a new renaissance for the world's benefit? Who is opening these opportunities for change?

- Motti Abramovitz, Founder, Bruno Art Group, Israel
- Hwa Hyun Kim, Artist, Korea
- Xiaokun Sunny Qiu, Founder, ArtsRouge International, China
- Piyarat Piyapongwiwat, Multidisciplinary Artist, Thailand
- Tarana Sawhney, Chairperson, CII Taskforce on Arts & Culture, India

Chaired by

- Denise Tsui, Managing Editor, CoBo Social, Hong Kong SAR

19.00-20.00 Virtual Receptions

Horasis Community Building

Each participant will be randomly matched with another to speak for 5 minutes by video, then become paired with another, and so on. By these mechanisms' delegates will become acquainted with others of a like mind - exchanging ideas, and potentially creating partnerships.